SERVING CHRIST IN THE WORLD

From the Rector

by The Rev. Lauren T. McLeavey

Dear Friends in Christ,

Last month I said that May was shaping up to "seem" slow, and boy was I right! I've been running constantly, and it is wonderful! Being busy means that good things are happening!

It seems like Summer has arrived! While I enjoy warmer weather, when it gets really hot, I long for the snow drifts of December. However, I know the I am often in the minority with this opinion.

Summer brings heat and also vacation. Usually church programs end in summer and life generally slows down, but we are still here! Don't forget about St. Anne's while you are having fun in the sun. Even though you may be away, our expenses still continue. I urge you to sign up for automatic payment with your bank.

After Easter season ends and we celebrate Pentecost, we switch to "Ordinary Time" which I think is not a great name for this liturgical season. We switch to the color green, which symbolizes growth and change. This is a season where we are not leading up to a big holiday (like Advent, Lent, and Easter), rather this is when we are supposed to work on our inner prayer life, and our growth as a follower of Christ.

Even if you are away, you can still serve Christ in the world. Make a new friend, talk about God, read a good theology book, these are just a few things you can do to continue growing in Christ even if you are away.

Remember also, if you have ideas/suggestions about church or anything, just let me know. If you are sick or someone you know is sick and wanting a visit, just let me know.

On May 30th, little Frankie will be having surgery to insert tubes into his ears. I appreciate your extra prayers on that day. The doctor assures me the procedure is very simple, but I, of course, worry anyway.

Yours in Christ,
Rev. Lauren

FROM THE CO-WARDENS

At a recent diocesan Stewardship meeting run by Bliss Spooner, it was emphasized that churches should have a Stewardship Plan in place by the end of June. Now that does sound a little early, but considering people are less available during July and August, it does make sense. Several of the parish representatives at the meeting already had draft plans done in May. So not to fall too far behind, we'll try to at least a draft in place before summer. If anyone is interested in helping out, please let one of us know.

Some of you may have noticed we had cold Sunday services a couple of weeks ago due to a blower problem with the church furnace. After some re-setting of the power a couple of times, the furnace did recover; however, it's now on the Property Management list to get checked out before we need the heat again in the fall. As mentioned in the April Newsletter, we're working to get maintenance and repair issues taken care wherever they may be. We've got a pretty comprehensive list, but if you see something that needs to be taken care of, let us know and if it isn't on the list we'll add it.

Again, this is OUR parish home and your help and input is always welcome.

OUTREACH AND MISSION

How Can You Help?

Did you ever wonder how the charitable efforts happen at St. Anne's?

It comes from a passion. My passion is hunger. No, I'm not passionate about being hungry, quite the opposite actually. I'm passionate about making sure no one is hungry. Because in this country where most of us have so much, no one should have to go hungry. This is why I find it very important to help out when I can at the food pantry and food market each month.

Thank you all for your response to Operation TP. As I've mentioned, although it may sound like a strange ask, it is one of the most requested items at the food pantry.

To me, this is what "church" is about. It's more than the building and an hour on Sunday morning. It's how you conduct your life and what you do for those less fortunate. In that sense, I consider "church" a verb.

So, what is your passion? How can St. Anne's help you help others? All it takes is an idea and a few people to get together to come up with a plan. And then St. Anne's family will help. I challenge each of you to come up with a charitable cause you can help organize an effort to help. We need one cause each month. Who has an idea?

-Sandra Giroux

FUN-RAISING

Strawberry Festival is coming! June 15th from 9:00am-2:00pm !

Please join us!

We could certainly use some help if we're going to repeat last year's successful BBQ. There will be a sign-up sheet for donations of BBQ items posted outside the kitchen. As always, we can always use help with set up and clean up. For any questions please see Andrea Jeffrey.

To help with strawberry picking, or shortcakes, please speak with Judy Peck.

-Andrea Jeffrey

SCAM ALERT

A scammer is texting parishioners of St. Anne's under my name, however it is NOT my phone number. The texts are asking for cash and gift cards to give to "cancer patients" in the hospital. The scammer is using formal language such as beginning with "Dear (first and last name)" and ending with "Many blessings be on you, Rev Lauren McLeavey." If you get a text from "me" asking for anything, please ignore and write the number down and give it to me so that I can report the scammer. This has been happening all over the country, as well as recently to our Lutheran brothers and sisters in Chelmsford.

For reference, my cell number ends with 811, but I do not text people in order to get donations. It is sad when someone tries to take advantage of people of faith for their own gain. Please keep a watch out!

-Rev. Lauren

Scholarships!

College scholarships from the Endowment Fund are available. Applications are available by the church entrance. Applications will be accepted until August 1st.

Anneacreons Summer Cook Out

The Anneacreons annual Summer cook out will be Saturday, June 1st at 3:00pm at Judy Peck's home. All are welcome! There is a sign-up sheet by the kitchen.

Rest in Peace Olive "Ollie" Couture

You may recall that long time parishioner
 Olive "Ollie" Couture passed away last November at age 99.
 Her Memorial Service will be Saturday,
 June 1st at 11:00am.
 There will be a luncheon to follow in Bixby Hall.
 The family welcomes anyone from Ollie's
 St. Anne's family to attend.
 Ollie will be interred in our Memorial Garden.
