

ST ANNE'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH - SMALL BUT MIGHTY

St. Anne's Episcopal Church Newsletter

JUNE 2023

Dear Parish,

We need acolytes! Can you carry the cross up our aisle, and hold it during the reading of the Gospel? Our faithful Brenda and Mike could use some scheduling flexibility, even just once a month. Much appreciated.

Diocesan Bishop Alan Gates announced his retirement by the end of 2024.

- Soon, we shall learn of candidates and elect our new episcopal leader.
- Pray for the Standing Committee who shall carry the responsibility for this process. They are like the Vestry for the whole Diocese.
- I am sad to lose a wise, steady, and listening leader.

As I near the completion of my 3-year commitment as your Priest-in-charge, both the Discernment Committee and I have been meeting with our Consultant Mark Gallagher. In the middle of June, we shall have some conclusions to share with you. I have been astonished by what we have accomplished together when I look back at the beginning of the pandemic and our first decisions about how to open back up for worship. We have come such a very long way together 😊

It seems that this past month has focused on mental health. From our town, and from our diocesan clergy wellness program, how to support each other in positive attitudes toward mental health has been the common topic. Moving out of the isolation we all felt during the pandemic affects different groups and ages in hard ways. Elsewhere in this Newsletter, on our bulletin boards, and in conversations, I hope you will find what you need in order to support your life of challenges. I am very happy to have any conversation with you or one you love. Speak to Rosemary, our co-warden, if you are interested in attending the Mental Health workshop. I recommend it.

Stay well, healthy, and happy, dear St. Anne's, as you move into a summer of rest
With faithful joy,

Mother Jennifer +

Wisdom for Worship June 2023

- June shifts into the long green season of Pentecost
- Return to a regular Gloria
- We'll move to using Eucharistic Prayer A BCP p. 361 <https://www.bcponline.org>
- Prayer A is atonement-oriented (at-one-ment with God) and most like Rite I
- Prayers of the People Form VI are responsorial but with silence for your additions
- Return to saying the Confession together at the end of these Prayers
- Continue pattern of switching back and forth between 2 post-communion prayers
- Shall we learn a song in Spanish?

Warden's Message: Rosemary and Mike

The Peace Pole

The Peace Pole that was installed in our Memorial Garden in December of last year is an internationally recognized symbol of the hopes and dreams of people worldwide. Each side of the pole has the words, "May Peace Prevail on Earth" in four different languages. If you haven't seen our Peace Pole, I encourage you to look for it the next time you visit our Memorial Garden.

Marketing

Okay, I'm sure your first thoughts are "What does marketing have to do with the church?" Don't worry, we aren't planning to sell used prayer books with TV ads yet.

What marketing means for St. Anne's is "How do we let people know who we are and what do we stand for". Last fall, at Billerica's Yankee Doodle Homecoming I had a couple of people from Billerica ask, "where is St. Anne's" and "what kind of church is St. Anne's". We clearly need to make St. Anne's more visible in the community and at the same time, tell people who we are and what our message is. There are things like the Yankee Doodle booth that we're already doing, but we need to do more. The web site is good, as is our involvement with the interfaith group, but there's much more we can do, and we'll be looking for everyone's help to come up with ideas.

In the fall, we plan to start a small group to discuss how we can accomplish these "marketing" objectives. Meanwhile, we need you to begin to think about what you can do to help.

Thank You!

Parish of St. Anne's, thank you for supporting us all, especially Rev. Jonathan, during the passing and funeral of Carol MacKenzie.

Paschal Candle

Submitted by the Rev'd Richard H. Lewis

For three centuries the Church was an underground movement and not a recognized part of the the social order. In the third decade (@ 330 CE) there was a major change and the Empire gave it full recognition. Many of the practices of the culture influenced the Church. One such was the lighting of myriad candles to mark the start of the celebration of the Resurrection. Over time a single, large pillar candle was made part of the Easter tradition. It is called the Paschal Candle.

Paschal is a word from three sources : Greek, Hebrew and Aramaic. Each word has the meaning of "passover." The event is named in the 12th chapter of Exodus. Moses and Aaron are given a set of instructions for getting ready to leave Egypt and how to prepare what became the Seder meal. When the lambs were slaughtered some of the blood was to be smeared on the door posts and the lintels of the Jewish people. When the Avenger came it would see the blood and Passover that dwelling.

At St Anne's the Paschal Candle is placed at the left end of the altar. During the 50 Days of the Easter Season it is lit first and for every service. Usually it is placed at the head of the casket during a funeral and is placed the font at every baptism.

I find it a symbol of the Pillar of Fire and the Pillar of Cloud that accompanied the Hebrew People as they went on their way to the Promised Land, a 40 year progression. Jesus, as our liberator, is the one who leads us out of our bondage to sin and death. He goes before us & leads us into the Kingdom of Light and Life. The Paschal Candle is first lit on Easter Eve and is carried into the church building in procession. The one carrying it stops 3 times and announces (loudly) "The Light of Christ". It is placed in the stand and a hymn, "The Exultet" is sung or said. Cf. Book of Common Prayer , pp. 285 ff. So, Jesus is our Light and in him we see light. With Him we walk in the Light. In our Baptism We die with Jesus and, in the power of the Spirit, we are raised up into new and eternal life. We become bearers of the Christ Light. We are those thru whom the Light shines, the saints of God.

Song of the Paschal Candle

The Exsultet (see text following) is the song sung by a Deacon at the Easter vigil after the Paschal Candle arrives at the altar. It is the oldest text in our prayer book (except for the Psalter), coming from the fourth century.

Notice its form, because it follows the rule that holy things come in threes (or multiples of three).

Rejoice. Rejoice. Rejoice.

Interruption: Direct address to us the listeners.

Beginning dialogue as in our eucharistic prayers.

This is the night. This is the night. This is the night.

How. How. How.

Closing Prayer to the Father about Christ, the Morning Star.

If one can make the three happen three times, then it is holiest of all.

Our Exsultet is in a nine-fold form; It is a holy song.

— Written by the Rev'd Jennifer D. Beal

The Exsultet

The Paschal Candle is placed in its stand.

Then the Deacon, or other person appointed, standing near the Candle, sings or says the Exsultet, as follows (the indicated sections may be omitted)

Rejoice now, heavenly hosts and choirs of angels, and let your trumpets shout Salvation
for the victory of our mighty King.

Rejoice and sing now, all the round earth,
bright with a glorious splendor,
for darkness has been vanquished by our eternal King.

Rejoice and be glad now, Mother Church,
and let your holy courts, in radiant light,
resound with the praises of your people.

All you who stand near this marvelous and holy flame, pray with me to God the Almighty for the grace to sing the worthy praise of this great light;
through Jesus Christ his Son our Lord,
who lives and reigns with him,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Exsultet (continued from previous page)

The Lord be with you.

Answer And also with you.

Deacon Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

Answer It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Deacon

It is truly right and good, always and everywhere, with our whole heart and mind and voice, to praise you, the invisible, almighty, and eternal God, and your only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who at the feast of the Passover paid for us the debt of Adam's sin, and by his blood delivered your faithful people.

This is the night, when you brought our fathers, the children of Israel, out of bondage in Egypt, and led them through the Red Sea on dry land.

This is the night, when all who believe in Christ are delivered from the gloom of sin, and are restored to grace and holiness of life.

This is the night, when Christ broke the bonds of death and hell, and rose victorious from the grave.

How wonderful and beyond our knowing, O God, is your mercy and loving-kindness to us, that to redeem a slave, you gave a Son.

How holy is this night, when wickedness is put to flight, and sin is washed away. It restores innocence to the fallen, and joy to those who mourn. It casts out pride and hatred, and brings peace and concord.

How blessed is this night, when earth and heaven are joined and we are reconciled to God.

Holy Father, accept our evening sacrifice, the offering of this candle in your honor. May it shine continually to drive away all darkness. May Christ, the Morning Star who knows no setting, find it ever burning—he who gives his light to all creation, and who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

It is customary that the Paschal Candle burn at all services from Easter Day through the Day of Pentecost.

A Note on Music...

This month's note on music introduces a new idea...including a hymn story! Following is the hymn story for "He Lives" (Levas 42) that we sang in the 5/14 service!

Peter Morelli

He Lives

1933

He is not here; for He is risen, as He said. Matthew 28:6a

Why should I worship a dead Jew?" That question—and a dreadful sermon—inspired this hymn.

Alfred Henry Ackley was born in Pennsylvania in 1887.* He showed great promise as a child, and his musician-father personally tutored him before sending him to New York City to study music. From there, it was on to the Royal Academy of Music in London. Alfred then returned to the States to attend Westminster Seminary in Maryland, and he was ordained into the Presbyterian ministry in 1914. After pastoring a church in his home state of Pennsylvania, Alfred was called to a congregation in California.

It was there in 1932, that Alfred met a Jewish man to whom he began witnessing. But the man resisted the Christian faith, saying, "Why should I worship a dead Jew?"

That statement played on Alfred's mind as he prepared his Easter Sunday message. Rising early to prepare for the day, Alfred flipped on the radio as he shaved and was astonished to hear a famous liberal preacher in New York say: "Good morning—it's Easter! You know, folks, it really doesn't make any difference to me if Christ be risen or not. As far as I am concerned, His body could be as dust in some Palestinian tomb. The main thing is, His truth goes marching on!"

Alfred wanted to fling the radio across the room. "It's a lie!" he exclaimed. His wife rushed into the bathroom, asking, "Why are you shouting so early in the morning?"

"Didn't you hear what that good-for-nothing preacher said?" Alfred replied.

That morning, Ackley preached with great vigor on the reality of Christ's Resurrection, and he did the same at the evening service. But later that night, he was still exercised over his friend's question and the morning's radio sermon. "Listen here, Alfred Ackley," his wife said at last. "It's time you did that which you can do best. Why don't you write a song about it and then maybe you'll feel better?"

Alfred went to his study, opened the Bible, and re-read the Resurrection account from Mark's Gospel. A thrill went through him, and he began writing the words to "He Lives." A few minutes later, he was at the piano putting it to music, not dreaming it would become one of the church's most triumphant Easter hymns.

"He (Jesus) told us that he goes ahead of us to prepare a place for us. Not just this person or that person or that other person. For humanity. Together. In union with God. In union with each other. Right where we belong." Bishop Jake Owensby

We're the Episcopal Church! That means..... We follow the Book of Common Prayer (BCP) as our unifier, and not a confession of doctrine. In the BCP, we find community and individual services and prayers for all occasions (especially beginning on p. 814. <https://www.bcponline.org>).

Jennifer's Journal June 2023

"Not Global Warming, but Global Weirding" is the phrase by Dr. Katharine Hayhoe in an easy-to-understand, passionate delivery. She was thoroughly based in scripture, faith, and church life, yet a well-respected scientist. Amazing science, and hope. The Geens passed on to me notice of her talk to The Episcopal Church on zoom. Her book Saving Us cares for all political persuasions. She herself is Canadian and lives in Texas, being married to an evangelical pastor.

The 2023 Clergy Conference focused on storytelling as a way we can talk to others about the meaning we find in church.

Think of an event. Tell it in just a very few sentences. Next tell its significance to you. And wrap it up in a punch line. There.

Now, you have a story to tell at the grocery store, or town event, or anywhere you might run into a past or future parishioner. Like some of you, some clergy were quite resistant to attempting something so challenging. Until it became fun!

Another part of the Clergy Conference asked us to think about our liturgy, our church service. Do we know what cultures various pieces of our service come from? Are we sending messages to newcomers that we are unaware of? What do we want to say?

Looking forward to St. Anne's hosting a diocesan Multicultural event educating neighbors and neighbors of color about normal legal rights of all persons in our country. The content will be provided by our diocesan Office of Multicultural and Immigration Ministries. Think of neighbors you might want to invite! It will be July 22, between 3 and 5pm.

Program for Confirmation and Reception into The Episcopal Church planned for the fall.

Altar Guild Director changes function. THANK YOU, AMY DESMARAIS!

Join us while we try a new way of collaborative leadership.

Planning to baptize Alyse Jean Midgette, the granddaughter of Jim & Susan Michelini, on June 18th. Come to church that Sunday, and join with the proud parents, Jess and Jimmy.

Two-service Sundays in 2023 will be June 4, October 1, November 5, and December 3.

When Giving Is All We Have

Alberto Ríos

We give because someone gave to us.
We give because nobody gave to us.

We give because giving has changed us.
We give because giving could have changed us.

We have been better for it,
We have been wounded by it—

Giving has many faces: It is loud and quiet,
Big, though small, diamond in wood-nails.

Its story is old, the plot worn and the pages too,
But we read this book, anyway, over and again:

Giving is, first and every time, hand to hand,
Mine to yours, yours to mine.

You gave me blue and I gave you yellow.
Together we are simple green. You gave me

What you did not have, and I gave you
What I had to give—together, we made

Something greater from the difference.
