

ST ANNE'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH - SMALL BUT MIGHTY

St. Anne's Episcopal Church Newsletter

SEPTEMBER 2023

Dear St. Anne's Family,

Who knew that our Billerica Community Pantry would become the State's leading experts in how to welcome refugees! Sandra and all her helpers have done and continue to offer outstanding kindness and service to 60 persons who fled their homeland of devastation with nothing but their desire to work and live in a stable land.

The phrase about a village being the best model for community is written in very large letters over our town right now. Each person contributing their perhaps small item has worked together to meet so many unexpected needs.

God's people are being loved by God's people in extraordinary ways. And I am so proud to be part of us all.

Thank you, extraordinary Billericans

Come see us on Saturday, September 23rd at our tent at Yankee Doodle Homecoming. And come to special homecoming church on Sunday the 24th at 9.

With joyful delight,

Mrs Jennifer +

Wisdom for Worship in September 2023

From M. Jennifer

With return to school and work, and being about halfway through the long green growing season of Pentecost, beginning with the second Sunday in September we will change to Eucharistic Prayer C (p. 369 <https://www.bcponline.org>) that includes both a vaster sense of creation and a personal sense of communion.

At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal.

I wonder what other changes you might request as we praise God together!

St. Anne's will have a tent at the Billerica Yankee Doodle Homecoming (September 23rd)!

St Anne's purchased reusable bags for outreach.

If you would like, you too can spread the word of St Anne's by carrying one. For a $5.00 donation we can replenish the outreach fund. Please see Sandra or Ed if interested in purchasing a bag or two.

Wardens' Message: Rosemary and Mike

September is usually a beautiful time of year. We continue with warm days, but cooler evenings. Hopefully, we can shut off the air conditioners and open the windows to get the fresh air that we all enjoy. The leaves begin to change color as we prepare for the transition into a new season.

The children are back in school making new friends and having new opportunities for growth and development. For us, at St. Anne's, we are transitioning from a Priest-in-Charge to a Rector – a new and exciting beginning. It is also the time of year that our church groups get back together, and we are always looking for new members to join. Those of us who are part of a group might think about inviting someone new to join. It is an exciting time for updating our church calendar and planning events for the coming months.

Dates to Remember:

- ◆ August 31st – Calendar planning meeting at 6pm
- ◆ September 19th - Vestry Meeting at 7pm
- ◆ September 23rd – Yankee Doodle Celebration in Billerica
- ◆ TBD, a Saturday in September– Fall Outdoor Cleaning of St. Anne's

Groups to consider - Led by the following people

- ◆ Bible Study (John & Sue Geen or Mike Hopkins)
- ◆ Children's Church School – Brenda Komarinski
- ◆ Social Conscious Book Club – Marguerite Massey
- ◆ Film Crew – Mark Komarinski, Sandra Giroux
- ◆ Acolytes – Mother Jennifer
- ◆ Altar Guild -Mother Jennifer
- ◆ Coffee Hour Hosts – Sue & John Geen
- ◆ Ushers – Linda Kusnierz
- ◆ Crafts – Marie Figenbaum
- ◆ Social Group – John & Sue Geen

During the month of August, Billerica welcomed 15 Haitian Families to our community. As always, members of St Anne's, through the coordination of Sandra Giroux, worked with the Billerica Interfaith Association to help these guests adjust to their new transition.

Warmest Thanks to All!

Ecclesiastes 3:1 To everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven.

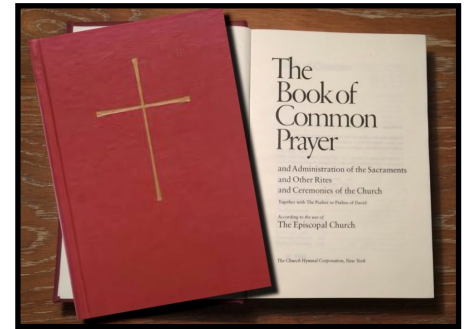

Jennifer's Journal September 2023

*We're the Episcopal Church! That means..... To be an Episcopalian, you only have to ... use the Book of Common Prayer!

No promises to conform to a Creed or Confession (Presbyterian and others).

No promises of allegiance to a Pope (Roman Catholic) – our Archbishop of Canterbury (UK) only recommends guidance, he has no authority to demand it.

No superiority of our own congregation's rules (Congregational).

Whether in North Carolina or Maine (where have you visited this summer?!), the form of worship will seem familiar as we all use the same Prayer Book. We even use the same cycle of scripture readings (= lectionary cycle).

*Discoveries during my vacation travel:

1. Oberlin Village in Raleigh, NC began in 1858 when a plantation owner sold 16 acres to a Free Black man named Jesse Pettiford for $160. From that single action, a whole village and support community grew up and thrived. The first Black Lender named the Village after his College that also I attended! John Frederic Oberlin lived and died in France (1740-1826), but he taught and pastored in such a holistic way that I understand why both places took his name. I never knew any of this history that fascinates as it connects me back and forward and to others.

2. Different livestreaming set-up at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Brunswick ME. Their leader loved showing off to me what their system can do, and I resisted responding with what more our system can do..... I am so proud of our Filming Team!

*News about our Diocesan Search for our next Diocesan Bishop (The most senior kind of Bishop. A Suffragan Bishop and an Assistant Bishop both serve the Diocesan Bishop.)

The timeline includes May 18, 2024, as the election date and Oct. 19, 2024, as the date for the ordination and consecration of the new bishop. The timeline is posted on the diocesan website at www.diomass.org/bishop-search/timeline, where it will be updated as necessary.

*Diocesan Convention, in Danvers on October 27-28, 2023 asks for your feedback.

Open comment period for proposed Resolutions: Sept. 8-13

Discussion of proposed Resolutions, on Zoom: Tuesday, Sept. 12, 7 p.m.

Viewing nights for pre-recorded video reports, on Zoom: Monday, Oct. 2 at 7 p.m. and Thursday, Oct. 5 at 7 p.m. (attend one, or watch on your own, on demand, prior to Pre-Convention Forums)

*Pray for our new Haitian neighbors. Pray for their basic needs to be met. Pray for their work permits and to find jobs. Pray for their children. Pray for their spiritual lives. Pray for us, that we might know how to minister to them. Will you share your thoughts and ideas, please?! What do you know or love about Haiti?

A Note on Music...

1 Fairest Lord Jesus,
Ruler of all nature,
O thou of God and man the Son;
thee will I cherish,
thee will I honor,
thou, my soul's glory, joy and crown.

2 Fair are the meadows,
fairer still the woodlands,
robed in the blooming garb of spring;
Jesus is fairer,
Jesus is purer,
who makes the woeful heart to sing.

3 Fair is the sunshine,
fairer still the moonlight,
and all the twinkling, starry host:
Jesus shines brighter,
Jesus shines purer,
than all the angels heaven can boast.

4. Beautiful Savior! ...

A Note on Music...

Following is the hymn story for "Fairest Lord Jesus" (H383) that we sang in the 8/6 service!

-Peter Morelli

Fairest Lord Jesus

1677

For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given . . . And His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
Isaiah 9:6

This hymn came from Roman Catholic Jesuits in Germany and originally had six verses. It first appeared in 1677 in a Jesuit hymnbook titled Münster Gesangbuch, but the text of the hymn was in existence at least fifteen years earlier, for it has been found in a manuscript dating back to 1662. Yet the origin of the words remains a mystery.

Who translated it into English? That, too, is largely a mystery. The first three stanzas are the work of an anonymous translator. The fourth stanza was by Joseph A. Seiss, and it first appeared in a Lutheran Sunday School book in 1873.

How appropriate that no human author draws attention from the great theme of this song. There's no source to distract from the subject, no story to detract from the Savior.

This hymn emphasizes the beauty and wonder of Christ, and it alludes to His dual nature, that He was both human and divine, God made flesh, the God-Man: O Thou of God and man the Son . . . Son of God and Son of Man . . .

It brings to mind one of the greatest observations ever made about Christ, uttered by the "Golden-mouthed" preacher of Antioch, John Chrysostom, in a fourth-century sermon: "I do not think of Christ as God alone, or man alone, but both together. For I know He was hungry, and I know that with five loaves He fed five thousand. I know He was thirsty, and I know that He turned the water into wine. I know He was carried in a ship, and I know that He walked on the sea. I know that He died, and I know that He raised the dead. I know that He was set before Pilate, and I know that He sits with the Father on His throne. I know that He was worshiped by angels, and I know that He was stoned by the Jews. And truly some of these I ascribe to the human, and others to the divine nature. For by reason of this He is said to have been both God and man."

*Beautiful Savior! Lord of all the nations!
Son of God and Son of Man!
Glory and honor, praise, adoration,
Now and forever more be Thine.*

The New Normal submitted by Ed Giroux

As I read last month's newsletter, I came across the final bullet item in Mother Jennifer's "Wisdom for Worship" section. Among the items included in her write-up was a bullet that said that Covid restrictions have been permanently relaxed. Reading that line made me think back to the beginning of Covid restrictions.

It was on or about March 10, 2020 when Governor Baker declared a state of emergency. On Friday, March 13 schools began to shut down. As I recall, these shutdowns were to last for about 2 weeks. At this time at St. Anne's, we were without a Rector as Rev. Lauren had resigned and as one of the Wardens, I was trying to arrange for supply priests without burdening Rev. Jonathan MacKenzie too much.

As I recall, we shut down and cancelled services for one Sunday. It was Sunday March 15th, 2020. During the week between the 15th and 22nd, Mark and Brenda Komarinski, Peter, Maria, Sandra and I began brainstorming, trying to figure out how to take advantage of technology and bring a Sunday service to everyone who was now required to stay home. But remember, we were without a permanent Priest. And how could we conduct a Sunday service without a Priest? I suppose we could have done morning prayer, but none of us are preachers.

If you're still reading this, you may ask yourself why is he re-hashing all this? Well during that first week of the shut down, I placed a call to Rev. Jonathan to ask if he'd be willing to conduct Sunday services and preach to an empty St. Anne's. He enthusiastically said yes!! And because of that phone call and Rev. Jonathan's willingness to help us, St. Anne's missed only one service during the "two-week" shut down that literally lasted for months. Thanks to the technical knowledge of Mark, the willingness of Rev. Jonathan to conduct the service in an otherwise empty church and for Peter to play music in the same empty church, who knows where we'd be today??

Although St. Anne's was technically closed and complying with what ended up being a shut down for more than a year, only one Sunday went without a proper worship service. We continue today to live stream most services offered at St. Anne's. This is our new normal. And it's all because of the technical ability of Mark, the musical ability of Peter and Maria. But in large part we owe a debt of gratitude to Rev. Jonathan for his willingness and enthusiasm to come and conduct Sunday services in front of an empty church! In my opinion, this spirit of giving helped to ensure that St. Anne's not only survived but continues to thrive!

Thank you for helping to ensure that St. Anne's thrives.

Open invitation to an Altar Guild meeting with M. Jennifer on Saturday September 16 at 10:00am for anyone who might be curious about setting up for Baptisms and Funerals.

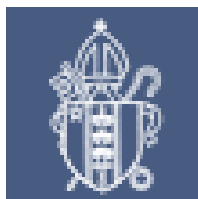

From the Administrator...

While visiting some relatives this summer, my wife and I were in areas that were important to her family history. My wife's ancestors, including two grandparents, came from Quebec province. We have been to Canada numerous times and have always enjoyed it. As with many people, her family history includes events that happened at churches. On this trip we were fortunate to hear a service in French at the Cathedral in Sherbrooke where her grandfather was baptized, although he was probably baptized in the Cathedral basement since that is all that was completed at that time. We also enjoyed the art work and craftsmanship displayed in stone, mosaics, paintings, glass and wood. The pictures are from some of the Quebec province churches we visited that are related to my wife's family history.

IN CHRIST, CALLED TO COLLABORATE

238th Annual Convention
Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts

In Christ, Called to Collaborate

Speaking the truth in love, we must grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by every ligament with which it is equipped, as each part is working properly, promotes the body's growth in building itself up in love.

Movie Night

We will be watching the movie "Encanto". It will be shown on Friday, September 15 at 6:00pm. This movie runs for 1 hour and 42 minutes. A discussion will follow.

Mother Jennifer received the following invitation by email from our Regional Canon, Martha Hubbard. I'm excited to receive your support for how we preach to one another. If you are inspired to join, speak or email to me or our wardens, or our church office.

We invite you to participate in a 16-week program to increase engagement of your congregation in how the Good News is shared in your worshipping community. This new program, called The Preaching Congregation, is being developed by the Episcopal Preaching Foundation and is funded by a grant from the Lilly Endowment. We see it as a creative, effective way to include the laity in the sermon preparation process and we are eager to have a select group of congregations from our diocese participate.

For this program, participating preachers, lay and ordained, will identify a small group of congregation members who will work with the preacher on a weekly basis to engage in exegesis discussions and to provide caring, supportive sermon feedback. To make these discussions truly helpful, the small group will first participate in a six-week training program that will give them the tools they need to do this work. The Episcopal Preaching Foundation is developing the curriculum for this training, which is being designed by recognized experts in their fields. After the six weeks of training, there will be ten weeks of application, in which this lay "Lectionary Team" will meet with the preacher to discuss the prior week's sermon and to discuss the lectionary readings for the coming week. Before, during, and after this 16-week session, there will be interviews and surveys to document the impact of this new program on your congregation.

I wish you rest today. I wish you a deep knowing that exhaustion is not a normal way of living. You are enough. You can rest. You must resist anything that doesn't center your divinity as a human being. You are worthy of care.

Tricia Hersey from "Rest is Resistance: A Manifesto"
