

ST ANNE'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH - SMALL BUT MIGHTY

St. Anne's Episcopal Church Newsletter

MAY 2024

Dear Parish family,

Maybe our Easter joy exuberance can overflow into the world we serve and love. Our Jewish friends at Temple Shalom Emeth in Burlington invite us to their Holocaust Memorial service on May 3rd at 7pm. Our collaboration with many at our local Islamic Majtid on May 11th will give items to those in need. North Billerica Baptist Church, only a few blocks from us, will install their new pastor on May 19th at 3pm. These are but a few ways that St. Anne's community participation makes a difference for God's world.

What do you do to share Christ's compassion in our world? Many things, I know :)

How shall St. Anne's grow? We have increased our marketing – have you noticed? What would make us more effective from your point of view? Tell a Vestry member. We like hearing from you.

May Christ, the Morning Star, shine ever more brightly upon your home and your life.

For all are loved,

Mrs Jennifer +

Wardens' Message: Rosemary and Mike

According to the calendar, Spring is here! It didn't start out too well considering the April 3rd nor'easter, but we're past that now and it seems to be warming up. On the 8th, volunteers delivered Easter flowers to a number of shut-ins. Thanks to Doris for organizing the deliveries.

Of course, April 8th was also the eclipse of the sun which was observed by many of us even though we weren't in the total zone. At least one parishioner traveled a good way to experience the total eclipse and another observed using cardboard boxes, electrical tape and the lens from a pair of reading glasses.

In case you're wondering what the Wardens do, according to St. Anne's By-Laws: "It shall be the duty of the Wardens, when the Parish has no Rector, or in the Rector's absence to provide for the temporary performance of the Rector's duties. In the absence or incapacity of either Warden, or of a vacancy, the powers and duties of the Wardens shall devolve upon the remaining Warden." Our Vestry Resource Guide has two full pages of commitments, responsibilities, duties, and leadership requirements. Too extensive to go through in the newsletter.

In years past, we had both Senior and Junior Wardens where the senior warden represented the vestry and parishioners, and the junior warden was the Rector's warden. Today we have two co-wardens with equal status and shared responsibilities, and both are accountable to the vestry. In addition to monthly vestry meetings, we meet twice a month with the Rector and Treasurer and discuss everything from worship concerns and shut-ins to Buildings and Grounds and parking problems. No two meetings are the same. In between those meetings, a day doesn't go by without email and/or text exchanges. When necessary, we have convened Zoom meetings in between scheduled meetings to resolve issues.

It is a busy job, but very rewarding.

Movie Night

The April movie was unable to be shown.
We watched 3 short YouTube videos instead. I've got the links for these here:

The 1912 Bread and Roses Strike that Russell talked about on April 14 is where the title for the movie we had planned to watch in April comes from. This movie is based on the Justice for Janitors movement that started with a march on June 15, 1990 in Los Angeles, CA.

We will be actually watching "Bread and Roses" on Friday, May 10 at 6:00pm. This movie runs for 110 minutes. A discussion will follow.

The poem that the 1912 strike got its name from is here:

"Bread and Roses" poem

As we go marching, marching, in the beauty of the day,
A million darkened kitchens, a thousand mill lofts gray,
Are touched with all the radiance that a sudden sun
discloses,
For the people hear us singing: Bread and Roses! Bread and Roses!
As we go marching, marching, we battle too for men,
For they are women's children, and we mother them again.
Our lives shall not be sweated from birth until life closes;
Hearts starve as well as bodies; give us bread, but give us roses.
As we go marching, marching, unnumbered women dead
Go crying through our singing their ancient call for bread.
Small art and love and beauty their drudging spirits knew.
Yes, it is bread we fight for, but we fight for roses too.
As we go marching, marching, we bring the greater days,
The rising of the women means the rising of the race.
No more the drudge and idler, ten that toil where one reposes,
But a sharing of life's glories: Bread and roses, bread and roses.
Our lives shall not be sweated from birth until life closes;
Hearts starve as well as bodies; bread and roses, bread and roses.

St. Anne's Social Group will have an outing on Saturday, May 4th. They will meet at 11am in St. Anne's parking lot, then car pool to Hammond Castle in Gloucester, weather permitting. If the weather is uncooperative, the group will proceed to the Icon Museum & Study Center in Clinton.

Project Rise

It's that time of year again!! Saturday, May 11th, St. Anne's parishioners will once again participate in Project Rise. What is Project Rise? It is a philanthropic initiative of the Dawoodi Borhas undertaken by local communities across the world.

Sounds like a large undertaking, right? It is!! But locally, Project Rise is a locally run distribution of food and cleaning supplies to anyone who is in need. On Saturday, May 11th, from 10:00 am to noon this distribution will take place at the local masjid at 246 Rangeway Road in North Billerica.

In the past, St. Anne's has helped by providing our time, talent, and treasure. This year is no different. Although we have enough volunteers from our parish ready to help on the 11th, we still need some help.

St. Anne's has been asked to donate home cleaning supplies to be distributed on the 11th. Please see Sandra Giroux for details as to what we need. If you'd prefer, as always, cash is always accepted, and we can shop for you.

Thank you for your continued support.

Sandra Giroux

Social Conscience Book Group

The Social Conscience Book Club finished reading Dinners with Ruth by Nina Totenberg. We heard how the friendships with other women help those women who are making strides in a man's world. Those women forged the way for future generations to follow.

Our next book is What are Biblical Values? by John Collins. Please join us to learn "what the Bible says on key ethical issues."

Jennifer's Journal May

Thank you to all who delivered flowers from our Easter Altar to our parishioners unable to get to church! Thank you Doris Hamner for coordinating us all into a caring outreach to our homebound. You all are wonderful ministers to each other.

Electing our new Bishop is the major event in our Diocesan life this month of May. Your prayers, thoughtfulness and perspective are eagerly sought by our Delegates Todd Baldwin, Ed Giroux, and Mark Komarinski.

As you will see from Page 6 and following in the Diocesan Profile for our next Bishop, we are looking for the following characteristics: — Microsoft stock image

Grace in Diversity, Working to be Welcoming, Decentralized Decision Making, Working towards a Safe Church Environment, Committed Clergy, Dedicated Laity, Strong Episcopal relationships, and Working to Balance Competing Views.

Please pray with us:

Loving and Living God, as we seek a Bishop for the Diocese of Massachusetts, we also seek you.

Help us to listen deeply as you speak through the members of this committee; through the people of this diocese; through our parishes, missions, ministries, and institutions; through our neighborhoods, towns, and cities; through our past and our present; through word and sacrament.

When we are distracted by other voices, other tasks, other pressures, call us back to you. Give us courage, vision, and an ability to see past the surface of things. May we be patient and compassionate, trusting always in your mercy and goodness to us and to all that you have made.

We pray this in the name of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, one God.

Amen.

The four candidates presented by the Nominating Committee and approved by the Standing Committee (The "Vestry" for the Diocese) can be found on this page:

<https://www.diomass.org/bishop-search/bishop-nominees>

There might be further candidates who come in at the last minute. Again, do pray for your delegates on Saturday, May 18th. Thank you.

A Prayer for Our Time and for the Earth

Dear God, Creator of the earth, this sacred home we share:
Give us new eyes to see the beauty all around and to protect the wonders of creation.

Give us new arms to embrace the strangers among us and to know them as family.

Give us new ears to hear and understand those who live off the land and sea, and to hear and understand those who extract its resources.

Give us new hearts to recognize the brokenness in our communities and to heal the wounds we have inflicted.

Give us new hands to serve the earth and its people and to shape beloved community.

For you are the One who seeks the lost, binds our wounds
and sets us free,

And it is in the name of Jesus the Christ we pray. Amen.

— written by Bishop Carol Gallagher. From “Season of Creation: A Celebration Guide for Episcopal Parishes”

The two words are not co-equals (peace and shalom), and I suspect we may be missing the full import of the greeting

Jesus uses (Easter II and III) in the gospel records.

Shalom carries a range of meanings in one word:

*When Joseph asks his brothers about Jacob's health, the response has to do with good health, well being, wholeness.

*As a greeting, it is to wish the hearer the fullness of well-being, general good health & prosperity and is inclusive of inner completeness and tranquility.

*Root meaning is “completeness”. Connotations are wholeness, well-being, harmony and cooperation.

May all and every one be blessed with Shalom.

Have a good day !
